FATHER RICK'S CORNER

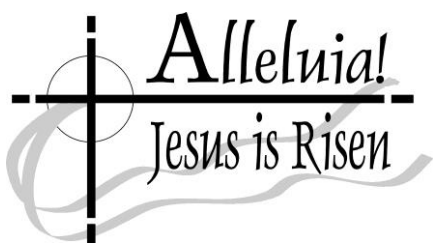

EASTER

"What good would life have been to us, had Christ not come as our Redeemer," words from the Exultent, the Easter hymn of praise and glory. The familiar Easter story unfolds for us once again – an empty tomb, fearful, hopeful disciples; women with astonishing news. The Risen Lord was going ahead of them to Galilee.

For many of the Disciples Galilee meant home, that is where their families were. It was in Galilee that they first met Jesus. In Galilee they would encounter the Risen Lord and slowly come to believe that He was indeed risen from the dead.

Where do we find the Risen Christ? It is in our own Galilee, in our personal experiences of Our Living God and in the day to day experiences of our lives. May the Risen Lord give you and all you love Easter joy and peace.

*God Bless,
Father Rick*

Please join us in celebrating an appreciation of family. Array of Hope has been featured on EWTN, Catholic Television Network, and Shalom World. Array of Hope has been labeled by Relevant Radio as "an event you can't miss...the Gospel in Technicolor." It will be a wonderful night that you won't want to miss.

NEXT WEEKEND'S READINGS:

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 4:32-35

This passage describes the actions of the first community of Christians. They were of "one heart and one mind." They had no rich or poor among them, for they shared all necessary items with one another.

Second Reading: I John 5:1-6

John explains that we become God's children by believing in Jesus. When we love God and concern ourselves only with pleasing God, our faith is strong enough to conquer the evil in our world.

Gospel: John 20:19-31

Jesus appeared to the disciples despite locked doors, breathed on them so that they could receive the Holy Spirit, and gave them the power to forgive sins in his name. Thomas, who was not present, refused to believe without seeing Jesus for himself. Jesus appeared again when Thomas was present, and told him, "Blest are they who have not seen and have believed."
